

Seeking Vocational Assessment Professionals

Company

Banyan Work Health Solutions Inc.

Location

Canada Wide
Alberta Priority Need

Position

Vocational Assessment Consultants

Description

For over 20 years, Banyan has managed case files with the accent on ability; a focus that augments medical diagnosis and ultimately speaks to the complexity of the case. Our “holistic outcomes” approach, that underpins all of our services seeks to uncover the underlying drivers that are at the root of unnecessary or prolonged absence has gained us recognition in both Canada and abroad and has made Banyan a known industry leader.

Banyan is in the process of expanding its presences in Australia and New Zealand, in addition to pivoting its Canadian strategy to include novel approaches to marketing Absence Management services and tools to governments, corporations and traditional stakeholders.

The Candidate

The appropriate candidate will possess the following qualifications:

- A post-secondary degree in Vocational Rehabilitation, Assessment, Psychology or related program. Master's Level candidates are preferred.
- Be a member in good standing with an associated regulatory body
- RRP, CCRC, RVP, CVP, CVE, CCVE designation or immediate eligibility
- Proven qualifications for B level test purchase and use

The appropriate candidate will possess the following skills:

- Experience administering and scoring standardized tests for the purposes of vocational planning
- STD/LTD, WCB work experience
- Have knowledge of progress of injury, disability and rehabilitation, have excellent analytical and problem solving abilities
- Have an ability to compile and generate detailed, accurate and comprehensive reports
- Demonstrate strong ethical standards, practices and professional integrity
- Ability to multi-task and manage competing priorities and strict delivery of gold standard service
- Have superior written and oral communication skills and solid organizational skills
- Competent in the Microsoft Office Suite and excellent mastery of new technologies

Responsibilities

The self-employed Vocational Consultant will be responsible for conducting vocational assessments with disabled adults through our Specialty Services Division. The incumbent will be responsible to arrange assessments and conduct testing as well as provide a final, comprehensive assessment reports. The Vocational Evaluator will be responsible to provide their own testing materials for the purposes of assessment.

REPORTING RELATIONSHIPS

Reports to:

Manager, Vocational Services

RENUMERATION

Competitive Salary

TO APPLY

Send resume directly to jgriffiths@banyanconsultants.com

Start Date

Immediate

Employment Type

Self-Employed Consultant

